JOCELYN “JAY” DEVILLIERS, often referred as the Flying Frenchman, has proven himself to be one of the most fiery and exciting players to watch. Devilliers left his home country for Barcelona, Spain to achieve his dream of becoming a professional tennis player. In 2013, Devilliers joined the men’s tennis team at Wichita State University. After graduating, Devilliers was introduced to pickleball.

Devilliers is also working on growing the sport in his home country, where he is an ambassador for the French Pickleball Federation and dedicates a portion of his time to teaching. Off-court, Devilliers enjoys traveling with his family, socializing with new people, and discovering new places/cultures. He currently resides in Wichita, Kansas with his wife and their three little boys.
